Berber and Co hb by O The Cookbook hb by Josh Katz (Ex Ottolenghi) RRP $59.99

Ditch burnt, joyless burgers for bold, flavoursome and wonderfully surprising barbecue food. Here are over 120 of the very best, lip-smackingly good barbecue recipes from ex-Ottolenghi chef, Josh Katz. Perfect for sharing and pairing in different combinations, all of the recipes are a celebration of flavour. A book that is not just for meat-lovers, equal status is given to vegetables so that they are never treated like a sideshow. Instead each and every component of the meal is big, bold and completely unforgettable. Meats, fish and vegetables are left to marinate and are then smoked, grilled, slow cooked or burnt (on purpose); while essential extras such as punchy pickles, fiery sauces, creamy dips and fresh salads are prepared ahead and ready to be heaped onto the plate. Taking inspiration from East to West, from the modern to the traditional, these barbecue recipes are like nothing you have ever encountered before – mashing tastes and techniques from New York, the Middle East, London, North Africa and beyond. With recipes including cauliflower shawarma with pomegranate, pine nuts and rose; harissa hot wings; monster prawns with a pil pil sauce and saffron buttermilk-fried chicken with tahini gravy, you will be inspired to grab a bag of charcoal and a lighter, and create your very own barbecue feast.

Little Viet Kitchen hb by Thuy Pham-Kelly RRP $39.99

As a child we had nothing and the value of every meal, therefore, was so important to us – this has shaped my love of and perspective on food.' Born in a small village in the south of Vietnam, Thuy was surrounded by food and she grew up amidst livestock and fresh produce, with a wonderful variety of fruits, morning markets with freshly picked vegetables and the smells of traditional street food. It's these memories that are the foundation of her food philosophy and culinary creations, and her landmark London restaurant, The Little Viet Kitchen, brings this true taste of Vietnamese cuisine to Islington. It is here that Thuy, along with her husband Dave, has created a dining experience combining the best of restaurateur precision and flair with the comforts of the home kitchen. Embracing all elements of Vietnamese cuisine, Thuy's food enhances and showcases the natural textures and flavours of the organic ingredients she uses. Having moved to the UK aged seven, Thuy has a distinctive approach to Vietnamese cooking in the West, with an authentic core knowledge of Vietnamese culture and a deft understanding of the London restaurant and foodie scene, all of which is brought to life in these pages. Offering a fresh approach and insight into how to make the best of classic dishes and Vietnamese family favourites, it is Thuy's expertise and memories that are the heart of each and every recipe. Beautiful photography accompanies each recipe, all styled by Thuy herself.

Casablanca hb by Nargisse Benkabbou RRP $39.99

Morocco is one of the top destinations in the world. This beautiful North African country lies on the border of Europe and the rest of the Arab world, drawing people in with its colourful souks, vibrant landscapes, cheerful hospitality and, most importantly, the food.

Casablanca is the exciting debut from Moroccan chef Nargisse Benkabbou. This book features recipes for simple and satisfying dishes such as artichoke, baby potato & preserved lemon tagine, sticky ras el hanout & peach short ribs and buttermilk chicken kebabs. Also featured are tasty western classics with a unique Moroccan twist: try your hand at orange blossom, beetroot & goats' cheese galette, roasted almond & rainbow couscous stuffed poussin and Moroccan mint tea infused chocolate pots. Nargisse breathes new life into Moroccan cuisine, blending that authentic Moroccan spirit and the contemporary to create accessible recipes for the everyday.

Milk. Made. is an elegant and comprehensive tour of the art of cheese-making and eating – from selecting cultures, to the practises of production that cross continents, and right through to the best recipes to enjoy them. Within the pages, you will find sections on the key types of cheese (and other dairy products) as well as how to make the cheese, store the cheese, serve the cheese, and the history of the cheese itself. For those who don't want to make it but simply love to eat it, Milk. Made. includes 60 comprehensive recipes such as croque monsieur, onion soup with grilled cheese croutons, beetroot and feta tart, classic fondue and many more. Accompanied by photographer Alan Benson, Nick Haddow visits internationally renowned cheesemakers in Australia, France, the UK, Switzerland, and the US interviewing some of the most inspiring cheese connoisseurs from around the world. As a successful cheesemaker himself, Nick also shares his knowledge of making, serving and storing cheese at home, Made. gives you all the information you need to make good choices about cheese, and having bought it, how to store it, serve it and cook with it. If cheese is your thing, Milk. Made. is for you.

Cheesemaking Workshop pb by Lyndall Dykes RRP $35.00

Cheesemaking is not the exclusive preserve of European experts or scientifically equipped kitchens. According to Lyndall Dykes, if milkmaids could make cheese with only the basics, you can too. Lyndall's book The Cheesemaking Workshop is devoted to cheese – in every respect. Practical, hands-on with guided step-by-step photographs, advice and tips, it demystifies an ages-old process into a fun, accessible and economical new skill for home cooks of all levels. Lyndall, known as 'the cheese lady' among her many local fans, has been teaching cooking and making cheese for more than 40 years and is a passionate advocate of wholesome, sustainable and delicious home-made food.
